Anouncement

Longtime employee of J&D Baer Inc London operations assumes ownership of London Basement Boss dealership

Jason Marcus, who has been manager of J&D Baer Inc London operations for the past 12 years is taking over as authorized Basement Boss dealer for the city of London. As the person who has been serving London customers so capably, this transition will ensure Basement Boss customers the continuation of the award winning service customers expect.

J&D Baer Inc will continue to supply customers outside the city of London with the full range of services provided in the past.

Our expectation is that this change will allow an even better, more personalized service.

Thank you all!
